Recalibrating Our Compass: The Role of Beauty

As we wind ourselves back toward each other, let’s consider the importance of BEAUTY over the past months. During this weekend, we will explore how our evolving sense of beauty affects the souls’ unfolding. Through the Dances of Universal Peace and the Message of Inayat Khan, we will use beauty to recalibrate our inner compass, steering us ever Toward the One. Yasmin is a senior mentor for the Dances of Universal Peace. She is also a Sheikha for the Sufi Ruhaniyat International where she has served on the board of trustees, and for whom she teaches across the country and internationally. Yasmin is committed to recognizing and remembering Unity amidst the vast network of diversity that supports us. The Sufi message provides a perfect platform for this important work in our world, especially during this time of “unknowing.” Yasmin is also a mother, wife, cat lover, gardener, yogini, and clinical social worker.

Yasmin Testimonials

I have known Yasmin by co-teaching with her for over 10 years and as a personal friend for over 20. She is authentic, genuine, has a wonderful sense of humor, and a very deep attunement to the Sufi message of Love, Harmony, and Beauty. She leads with grace, beauty, gentleness, and fierceness. People love her wherever she goes. Peace, Munira

Yasmin is a deep, thoughtful, centered leader of the Dance of Universal Peace. She works with the energy in a beautiful, warm, and welcoming way in which everyone feels safe to drop deeply and gently into themselves, as well as in relationship with fellow dancers seekers in retreat. Yasmin is a model for living life fully and in an egoless way. She asks questions that encourage us to find our own truths. I always leave her retreats with a deeper understanding of myself, a fullness of connection with others, as well as with the energy of the Divine that lives inside all of us. Love, Nur Ana Naomi

I’ve played guitar for Yasmin many times and am always impressed with her sense of rhythm and solid creativity as a dance leader. Dan Liechty

2022 WEEKEND RETREAT REGISTRATION FORM

SUBMIT PAYMENT FOR RETREAT AND LODGING TO FWDC WITH THIS FORM

The pandemic has challenged all of us. We are committed to keeping all dancers healthy, while recognizing that things could change by this summer. At this point in time, we respectfully encourage participants to be fully vaccinated and boosted for COVID-19. Otherwise, we require a 24-hour negative COVID-19 (rapid or PCR) test result. Be prepared with these documents when you check into the retreat. There may be modifications to the regular DUP format to accommodate for safety precautions. We appreciate your understanding. Paid registrants may get a full refund for any reason until July 1 and/or if the retreat is cancelled.
