Rosebud, what didst thou do all night?

With folded hands
I was praying to heaven
to open my heart.

Sayings of Pir-o-Murshid Inayat Khan
TANAS (The soul speaking with nature)
ROSE PETALS TOUCHING GROUND
with Sára Rain (USA)

The teachings of Hazrat Inayat Khan and the Dances of Universal Peace inspired by Murshid S.A.M. are wonderful ways to open our hearts. Dance means one thing to one person and something else to another, a teaching is received differently by each heart. We each discover in our own way, what is important for our soul's unfolding.

Similarly, each teacher we have met and everyone we will meet in the future, conveys an experience, knowledge and atmosphere in a personal and unique way. Rose Petals Touching Ground is an opportunity for us to meet some teachers and experience some new ways that the gems of our Sufi path are shared.

Our tools on the way:
teaching, dance, wazaif, breath, stories, silence, meditation...

Sára Rain is a teacher in the Sufi Ruhaniat, a Siraj, a grateful mureed of Murshid Rahmat and a mentor for the Dances of Universal Peace.

Titles could be added, but nothing distinguishes Sára as much as her devotion to the message of love harmony and beauty, her love for Hazrat Inayat Khan and the incomparable way of making this devotion and attunement accessible to others.

She combines a deep knowledge of the Sufi message, humor and wit, the depth of experience and an irrepressible curiosity. She's a friend of the unexpected and always good for a surprise.

Living in Fort Collins, Colorado USA, she hosts regular dance and zikr circles and retreats. She offers teachings and gatherings in Zoomland and much more.
