Guided by Jilani Cordelia Prescott: Sufi guide; internationally acclaimed Leader and Mentor of the Dances of Universal Peace. Musician, Mystic, Mother. Jilani is an experienced group leader with over thirty years' experience as a teacher and musician. She is known for her safe holding of space and profound yet joyful teachings.

There will be Dance Leadership Training sessions each afternoon, for new and developing Dance Leaders. All welcome - Musicians and Dancers too!

Accessibility: Although this event takes place on a stunningly beautiful site, it could be physically challenging. Enquire if you have any access needs. There is an accessible compost toilet.

"I felt compassionately and kindly challenged to continue opening my heart, both on the camp and going forward" — Gina

"Jilani leads/teaches with such integrity, heart, joy depth, and brings together, such a wonderful community. I think I might have finally found my caravan! Mashallah"

"I loved everything about the Sufi camp, the beautiful field, the depth and range of teachings, the people, the dancing, joy, love" — Sally
